

CHILD DRAMA WORKSHOPS, LTD.

The Independence School

Winter/Spring 2019 Drama Program

DRAMA can develop and strengthen a child's creativity/imagination, self-esteem, individuality, communication skills, and socialization skills, plus ... it's fun!!

January 28, February 4, 11, 25, March 4, 11, 18, April 1, 8, 15, 29, May 6, 13

(Please note: no drama classes will be held on 2/18, 3/25, or 4/22)

STORY DRAMA (EC1-1st grade): Mondays, 3:20-3:50pm

This interactive drama program includes creative movement, story dramatizations, and improvisational role-playing. This creative experience allows children to express themselves imaginatively by improvising favorite stories and original ideas. Let your child discover the wonder of stories coming to life before their eyes!

BEGINNING ACTING (2nd-5th grade): Mondays, 3:55-4:40pm

This interactive drama program includes creative movement, theatre exercises, and improvisational role playing. Basic acting techniques such as concentration, emotional awareness, and characterization are explored. This creative experience allows children to express themselves imaginatively by improvising favorite stories and original ideas.

All workshops are conducted by a professional actor/educator and conclude with a performance enhanced by professional make-up and costume accessories on the last day of the program!

Program Tuition: $286 per child

(Freedom Flex plans will also be charged the weekly hourly fee)

Register online at www.childdramaworkshops.com

More questions? Contact us at childdramaworkshops@gmail.com

About our Executive Director/Founder:

Dr. Carol Bouzoukis, PhD, RDT, MFA, author of Encouraging Your Child's Imagination: A Guide and Stories for Play Acting, is a Child Drama Specialist with a doctorate from New York University. She holds a Master of Fine Arts degree in Child Drama and has studied at the Lee Strasberg Theatre Institute of N.Y. Dr. Bouzoukis has directed plays for several professional theaters including The Delaware Theatre Company, The Children's Theatre Association of Baltimore, and The North Carolina Theatre for Young People. She has also directed for Ursuline Academy, Tower Hill School, Wilmington Friends School and various other schools in the Delaware area. Dr. Bouzoukis has been a Child Psychotherapist since 1987 and has a private practice conveniently located in Greenville, DE. Her books Pediatric Dramatherapy: They Couldn't Run, So They Learned to Fly and Encouraging Your Child's Imagination are available on Amazon.com.