

CHILD DRAMA WORKSHOPS, LTD.

After School Drama Workshops

DRAMA can develop and strengthen a child's creativity/imagination, self-esteem, individuality, communication skills, and socialization skills, plus ... it's fun!!

STORY DRAMA:

Montessori-Grade 1

Tuesdays, 3:00-3:30pm

January 14- April 7 (no classes will be held on March 17 due to Spring Break)

This interactive drama program allows children to express themselves imaginatively through creative movement, story dramatizations, and improvisational role-playing. Children will discover the wonder of classic stories coming to life before their eyes as they improvise their way through folktales, fairy tales, and fables with our professional storytellers!

Program Tuition: $195/child

BEGINNING ACTING:

Grades 2-5

Tuesdays, 3:35-4:30pm

January 14- April 7 (no classes will be held on March 17 due to Spring Break)

This interactive drama program includes creative movement, theatre exercises, and improvisational role playing. Basic acting techniques such as concentration, emotional awareness, and characterization are explored. This creative experience allows children to express themselves imaginatively by improvising favorite stories and original ideas.

Program Tuition: $236/child

All workshops are conducted by a professional actor-educator and conclude with a performance enhanced by professional make-up and costume accessories on the last day of the program!
